

ARENA TRIPLE TRIUMPH AT EVENT PRODUCTION AWARDS

Event infrastructure specialists, Arena UK & Europe celebrated a memorable evening after being bestowed with three Event Production Awards at The Lancaster London Hotel, 1st March.

To begin the night of accolades, Arena UK & Europe's CEO Grahame Muir presented a newly-created 'Industry Legend Award' to Dave Withey, acknowledging the tremendous impact he has made on the events industry throughout his 40 years working for Arena Seating.

Dave Withey, Arena UK & Europe sales and marketing director comments: "It was such a surprise to be honoured with this award. My thanks have to go out to my wonderful colleagues at Arena that I've worked with over the years, in particular Jill Mowat who has put up with me for over half of that time, as well as the many peers and friends that I have had the pleasure of collaborating with across the events industry."

Arena Structures came highly commended for their work in the 'Best Structure Supplier' category in honour of their outstanding triple decker hospitality structure installed for The Jockey Club's Festival at Cheltenham Racecourse.

Rounding off the evening in style, Arena Group won the prestigious and highly contested 'Editor's Award' for their outstanding delivery of innovative temporary event environments and delivery of service that consistently exceeds client expectations.
